

The XM and Sirius merger is going to be bad for subscribers to the services. XM and Sirius being in competition with each other drives technology, programming and most importantly allows consumers to choose which service they want. Please keep the competition going and do not allow the two to merge.